A Blackfoot man has been re-appointed as Division 2 Commissioner with Flood Control District No. 7, the Idaho Department of Water Resources has announced.

Marion P. Walker was reappointed by IDWR Director Karl J. Dreher to a three-year term that ends in January 2006.

Flood Control District No. 7 is responsible for flood control issues within the floodplain of the Blackfoot River starting at its confluence with the Snake River running upstream approximately 12 miles.
